STATEMENT OF SUBSTANCE OF INTERVIEW

MAIL STOP AF

June 10, 2005

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

This confirms the telephone conversation which the undersigned had with Examiner Beamer on June 6, 2005 in which the Examiner indicated that she was going to reopen prosecution and cite new prior art. It is therefore understood that the Amendment After Final Rejection of February 22, 2005 does not place the application in condition for allowance and that further response, including payment of any extension of time fees, is not required.

The aforementioned interview included a discussion by the Examiner that the February 22, 2005 Amendment was not in her file. The Examiner discussed during the interview that she had updated the search in the application apparently in response to the undersigned's inquiry about the February 22, 2005 Amendment placing the application in condition for allowance and found new prior art necessitating reopening prosecution.
